

presents

Crossfire Briefs

Volume 1, Number 5

January 2008

Resolved: In a democracy, civil disobedience is an appropriate weapon
in the fight for justice.

PFDebate.com

Definitions, Criteria, Etc.

There Is No Clear Definition Of Civil Disobedience	4
Definition: Civil Disobedience	5
Civil Disobedience Is Not The Same As....	6
Civil Disobedience Is Not Political Protest	7
Civil Disobedience Is Not Conscientious Objection	8
Two Types Of Civil Disobedience (and Free Kicks): Direct And Indirect	9
Indirect Action Can Be Civil Disobedience	10
Civil Disobedience Must Be Illegal	11
Civil Disobedience Must Be Non-Violent	12
Civil Disobedience Must Be A Public Act	13
Persons Engaged In Civil Disobedience Must Accept Punishment	14
Civil Disobedience Must Have An Objective Moral Standard	15
Civil Disobedience Must Have A Political Goal	16
Civil Disobedience Must Be The Action Of Last Resort	17
Civil Disobedience Is Not About Overthrowing The Government	18
Criteria For Civil Disobedience	19

PRO

Topic Analysis	21
There Is A Long Tradition Of Civil Disobedience	22-23
The U.S. Has A Long Tradition Of Civil Disobedience	24-26
Not All Laws Should Be Obeyed	27
Civil Disobedience Is Necessary To Right Injustices	28
Civil Disobedience Is Better Than The Alternatives	29
Civil Disobedience Is A Safety Valve To Prevent Violent Revolution	30-31
Generally, Society Benefits From Civil Disobedience	32
Generally, Democracy Benefits From Civil Disobedience	33-34
Civil Disobedience Is Justified In A Democracy	35
We Have A Duty To Engage In Civil Disobedience	36
Civil Disobedience Preserves Human Dignity	37
Civil Disobedience Reinforces The Limited Nature Of Government	38
Existence Of Legal Mechanisms Should Not Preclude Civil Disobedience	39
“Consent To Be Governed” Should Not Preclude Civil Disobedience	40
“Equality” Should Not Prevent Civil Disobedience	41
Civil Disobedience Is Justified To Draw Attention To Important Issues	42
Civil Disobedience Does Not Lead To Anarchy	43

CON

Topic Analysis	45
Individuals and Groups Should Work Within The System	46
Civil Disobedience Is Incompatible With Our Legal System	47
There Can Be No Right To Break The Law	48
Civil Disobedience May Trigger Violence	49
Civil Disobedience Could Result In Chaos	50-51
The More Civil Disobedience Is Used, The Less Effective It Becomes	52
Civil Disobedience Spreads Disrespect For The Law	53-54
We Need Laws To Protect Freedoms	55
Right To Dissent Preserves Freedoms	56
Civil Disobedience Hurts Other Citizens	57
Civil Disobedience Is Not Justified In A Democracy	58
Civil Disobedience Erodes Democracy	59-60
Civil Disobedience Spawns More Injustices Than It Removes	61
Each Individual Act Of Disobedience Must Be Justified	62
Justified Civil Disobedience Is Rare	63
Civil Disobedience Is Becoming A Form Of Oppression	64
Civil Disobedience Is Not Constitutionally Protected	65
Martin Luther King, Jr. Was Not A Disobedient	66
Gandhi Was Not A Disobedient	67

presents

Crossfire Briefs

Volume 1, Number 5
January 2008 Update

Resolved: In a democracy, civil disobedience is an appropriate weapon
in the fight for justice.

PFDebate.com

PRO Update

The U.S. Has A Long Tradition Of Civil Disobedience	3-4
The Declaration Of Independence Provides For Civil Disobedience	5
Democracy Does Not Require That We Obey all Laws	6
Civil Disobedience Stimulates Public Discussion Of Important Issues	7
Civil Disobedience Increases Public Participation In Politics	8
Civil Disobedience Is A Safety Valve to Prevent Violent Revolution	9
Civil Disobedience Does Not Lead To Contempt Of All Laws	10
Civil Disobedience Does Not Lead To Anarchy	11
We Need Civil Disobedience Because the Democratic Process Is Inadequate	12
Civil Disobedience Is Justified In A Democracy	13
Civil Disobedience Enriches Democracy	14
We Need More Civil Disobedience	15
On Balance, Civil Disobedience Is Justified	16

CON Update

Individuals and Groups Should Work Within The System	18
There Can Be No Right To Break The Law	19
Civil Disobedience Spreads Disrespect For The Law	20
Civil Disobedience Erodes Democracy	21
The Experience With The Articles Of Confederation Demonstrates The Need For Enforcement Of Laws	22
Civil Disobedience Is Degrading	23
Taken To Its Logical Conclusion, Civil Disobedience Leads To Revolution	24
Real Political Power, Not Civil Disobedience, Is The Only Way to Achieve Political Objectives	25
Civil Disobedience Is Irrelevant To The Problems Of Today	26
Civil Disobedience Is An Ineffective Weapon	27
We Should Respect the Law even When We Disagree With The Law	28